Subj: RELIEF FROM COMMAND

Ref: (a) Report of Investigation dtd 24 Sep 18

1. Effective immediately, you are hereby relieved of your duties as Commanding Officer (CO) of Naval Computer and Telecommunications Station (NCTS) Sicily.
2. Your relief, CAPT Andrew Corey, USN, hereby assumes Command of NCTS Sicily. All duties and responsibilities incident to Command pass to him immediately.
3. I am relieving you due to my loss of trust and confidence in your ability to command. Reference (a) contains the results of an investigation I recently directed, following allegations contained in an Inspector General (IG) complaint. The investigation revealed that you conducted yourself in a manner that brought into question your professionalism, competence, integrity and leadership. Perhaps most disappointing was your unwillingness to take responsibility for even the smallest of indiscretions, as well as repeated, vigorous and obvious false statements, severely compromising your integrity and judgment as a leader. Based on my review of the investigation, I have lost trust and confidence in your ability to lead and command NCTS Sicily.
4. I hereby direct you to refrain from contacting any member assigned to NCTS Sicily or take any action in retaliation against any member of NCTS Sicily, or any other member, as a result of this relief. This is a lawful order, a violation of which is punishable under Article 92 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice.
5. Should you have any questions, my point of contact for this matter is CAPT Robert Passerello, JAGC, USN, Fleet Cyber Command/U.S. TENTH Fleet, who can be reached at 240-373-3402 or robert.passerello@navy.mil.
